A lounge suit is required for the Vigil and Melbourne Club event (decorations may be worn to this event).

Warm casual clothing, solid footwear, a coat and umbrella are recommended for Melbourne at this time of the year.

Some transport arrangements will be organised

Subject to the number of interstate OJL members that attend and where they choose to stay, the Victorian Commandery will seek to organise tickets using public transport or an alternative arrangement, please advise the Victorian Commandery Secretary via email.

While transport can be arranged to and from St Peter's Eastern Hill East Melbourne (Saturday, 15 May 2021), we ask that those that can and are happy to do so can either walk or take a 400 metre tram ride.

Live Streaming

As indicated the Victoria Commandery will seek to organise live streaming for those members that are not able to physically attend.

However, this subject to sufficient demand.

Hotel Accommodation

The Grand Prior has asked for members to organise their own accommodation. To reflect the challenges of running a Chapter Meeting during CoVID-19 and to lower the financial risks no hotel will be used to host meetings. Instead the Commandery President's parish (just south of City) will host the Chapter meeting instead.
